- · Cash from operations of $71.8 million, a 41% increase

Outside of the discontinuation of the lender placed insurance brokerage line of business, the fourth quarter 2014 net loss was from higher costs than in the fourth quarter of 2013, partially as a result of expenses to support anticipated business growth. To quickly address the change in expectations for Ocwen's growth, the Company has begun to execute on a plan that includes eliminating non-revenue generating businesses, reducing vendor fees and eliminating staff to reduce costs.

"Our 2014 performance was driven by strong revenue growth. During 2014, our earnings grew at a lower rate than our revenue as we incurred expenses for people and infrastructure to support a larger Ocwen and certain longer-term initiatives that had no revenue associated with them. We developed and are implementing a plan to reduce costs and eliminate certain of these initiatives to be a leaner, more focused organization," said Chief Executive Officer William B. Shepro.
