ALTISOURCE DISCONTINUES LENDER PLACED INSURANCE BROKERAGE BUSINESS

LUXEMBOURG, November 12, 2014 — Altisource Portfolio Solutions S.A. (“Altisource”) (NASDAQ: ASPSP) today announced that it is discontinuing its Lender Placed Insurance (“LPI”) brokerage line of business.

Altisource believes that it developed a lender placed insurance program that is unique in its benefits to consumers and investors. The program lowers premium rates compared to previous program rates, promotes ongoing premium rate competition among underwriters to further reduce premiums and will include an offer to borrowers to purchase voluntary homeowner’s insurance to avoid having their insurance placed by their servicer.

However, given the uncertainties with industry-wide litigation and the regulatory environment, Altisource believes it is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders to discontinue this line of business and continue to focus attention and resources on developing and delivering leading innovative technology-driven products and services for the real estate and mortgage markets that will provide benefits to consumers, lenders, originators and other participants.

Homeowners with insurance policies placed via this program will experience no impact to their coverage as a result of this decision. The discontinuation of this business line is expected to reduce Altisource’s quarterly diluted earnings per share by an average of approximately $0.50 - $0.65 for the period October 1, 2014 through December 31, 2015.
